

Catherine Ann Stevens, JD
Partner, Mayer Brown LLP

Catherine Ann Stevens, JD, is a partner with the law firm of Mayer Brown LLP in Washington, D.C. Previously, she has served as General Counsel for the National Endowment for the Arts; Executive Director of Terra Foundation for the Arts with responsibility for museums in Chicago and Giverny, France; and General Counsel for Occidental International Corporation in Washington, D.C. She was the State District Attorney in Fairbanks, Alaska and in private practice in Fairbanks and Anchorage. She also served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of California. She is a member of the Bar of California, Alaska and the District of Columbia.

She has served on the Advisory Council of the NIH National Institute on Drug Abuse and the National Foundation for Mental Health, NIMH. She has served as a Trustee of the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts and on the board of directors of the Washington Opera, Shakespeare Theatre, Ford's Theatre, the Advisory Boards of the Wyeth Center at the Farnsworth Museum in Rockland, Maine, the Weill Music Institute at Carnegie Hall, the National Museum of the American Indian, and was a member of President Jimmy Carter's Commission on Radio and Television Policy (U.S./Russia). She and her late husband Senator Ted Stevens have supported and worked closely with many national and international medical research institutions and Alaska Native foundations and communities to improve health and education and preserve their cultural heritage.